

Be Ye Therefore Perfect

Jesus commanded, Be ye therefore perfect. Some claim perfection cannot be achieved in this lifetime. But, Jesus never said eventually or in the next life. Is this commandment binding or merely a suggestion?

A Hidden Treasure

In your Bible, hidden in plain site, is a treasure of incalculable worth. What if I told you perfection is possible today! Abraham showed us how; Moses told us how; and New Testament writers shared their stories so we never forget. But, did we forget none the less?

A Promise Attached

What if I told you this commandment comes with a promise? Peace with God!

You are Invited

Please join our Bible study. It explores every corner of this precious gift of God. You have our word, we will never say your church or your beliefs are wrong. Instead, we will share relevant passages and allow you to decide for yourself. You will find the study at:

lancearl.com/bep perfect